NCYU Stands for No Cars yes Unicorns

The problem is that pollushin is like evrywhere now and so is carben dieocside. Which is the problem. The solushin is

I will change the world by inventing Unicorns. How does that help good queschin? Well here is one annser people could ride on Unicorns to get where they need to go. Instead of a car, truck, airplane, boat, jet, van and rocket you can use a unicorn. Plus cars can not fly but

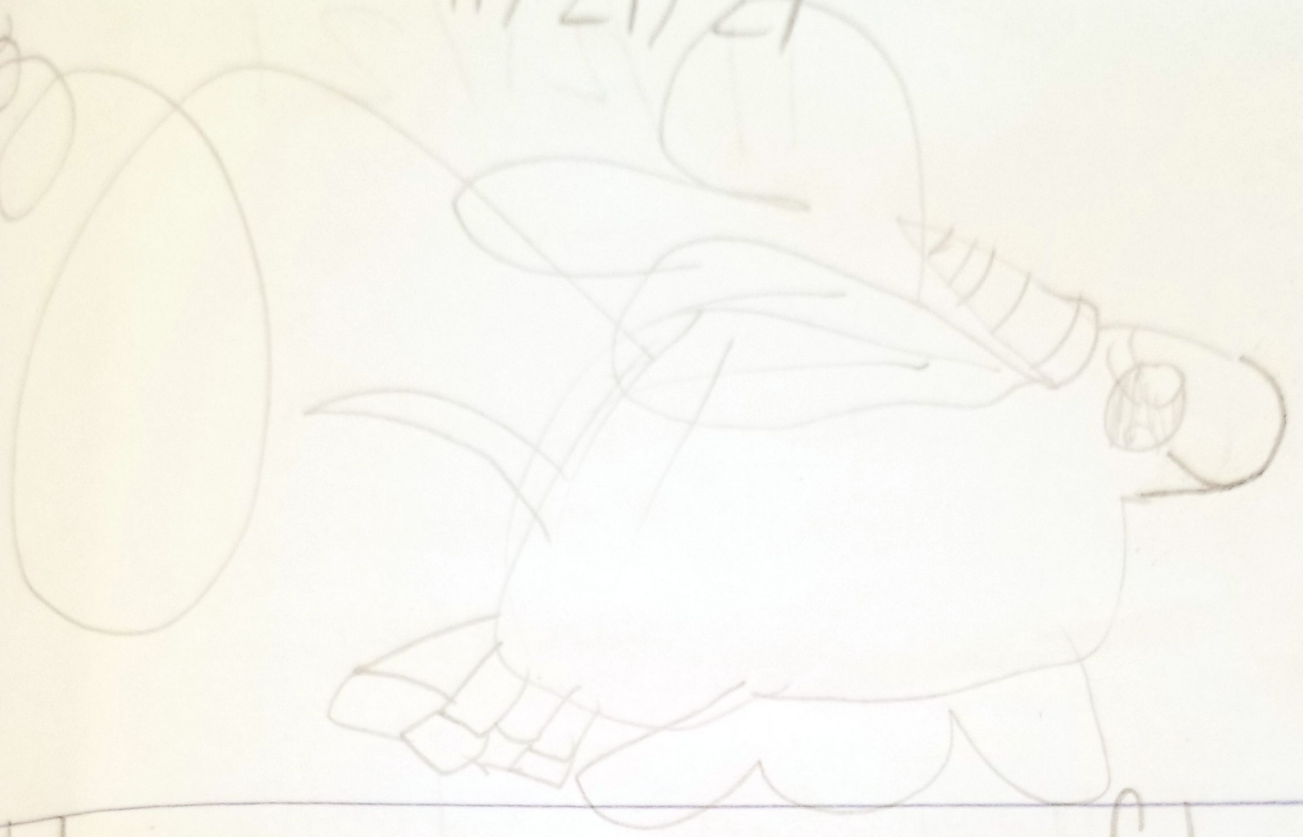
11/21/21



Unicorns can fly.
Also Unicorns can do tricks and
loopty loops but cars cannot. An other thing is
they can change

color. Like red, orange, yellow, green, blue, purple, pink, white, gray, peach, brown, light brown, dark brown, black, dark blue, light purple, rose prink and rdinbow. I will change the world by Unicorns which will be great. And the reason is Unicorns

could help stop puoochin.

Now to end this story I must say bye bye and until next time bye bye.
